OTHER INFORMATION

While I was studying at the New England Conservatory, I had a chance to work as a main accompanist for the International Conducting Seminar Camp with Shinik Han (Professor of Conducting and Music Director of the Yale Philharmonia of Yale University). The work required extensive sight reading, playing the piano parts from the full orchestra score, and playing the piano parts with orchestra.

Also, I was a member of the Jury for '2008 Gyeong Gi Music Association Piano Competition' where I wrote comments and graded students who ranged from first grade to high school, as well as the 2009 Gyeong Nam Music School Association Piano Competition, where I wrote comments and graded 6th grade through high school students.
