Organizing Your Club/Organization

Like all organizations, student organizations and clubs involve people – people coming together. Motivating people to work together in an organized manner is not an easy task, but it is essential for the success of your club/org.

1. The entire membership should establish the goals at the beginning of the academic year and they should be reviewed and monitored throughout the semester. Consider establishing long- and short-range goals.
2. Officers should communicate between meetings to organize the next meeting agenda and to discuss ideas, topics, and/or issues.
3. Create and distribute an agenda in advance of the meeting so members are informed of the topic areas, and keep minutes of the meetings.
4. Communicate with your members! This is essential.
5. Communicate with the Office of Student Life! Turn in your rosters and a copy of your minutes to the Associate Director after each meeting. Work with the OSL to plan events, get paperwork in on time, and complete event assessments after your programs.
6. Host meetings regularly. Keep the meeting times and places consistent. This is critical to the success of your organization.
7. Support and cooperate with other clubs & orgs on campus.
8. Have fun and support one another on achieving the organizations goals.
9. Seek advice from your advisor as needed, while always keeping him/her in the loop.
10. Contact the Office of Student Life as needed for assistance. We are here to help you!
Role of Your Advisor

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>Discuss including details! Certify academic eligibility of all officers, monitor compliance with guidelines of a national organization when the student organization is a member of a national charter, share College policies and procedures as well as assist them with the financial procedures.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>V</td>
<td>Value the group and the process. Be aware of the goals and directions of the organization and assist the members in developing leadership skills. Stress the importance of delegating authority and seeing that students accept this responsibility. Teach students to use their judgment in decision making.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I</td>
<td>Intervene when necessary: Give direction when needed, being a troubleshooter, Serve as a resource, confront students who are not doing the job and develop a plan of action to correct this.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>S</td>
<td>Support the students and speak up when necessary. Praise the students for a job well done. Be fair, consistent, and honest. Provide support and Structure when needed.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>O</td>
<td>Offer suggestions and ensure opportunities are available to all students, playing the devil’s advocate when appropriate. Encourage personal development of the organization members.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>R</td>
<td>Resource contact, serve as a resource, assist with requisitions and paperwork!</td>
